Institution reviewer

As a reviewer and committee member in a doctoral procedure, I have been informed that my work is subject to strict confidentiality.

In particular, this refers to the fact, that information about the doctoral candidate, the dissertation, the evaluation, the status of the procedure, interim decisions of the doctoral committee, considerations and contributions to the discussion by members of the doctoral committee, are not allowed to be made public, not even within the university.

The entire doctoral procedure will be treated confidentially even after the end of the procedure.
